MoneyLion Team,

I am thrilled to announce a transformative milestone in MoneyLion's journey: today, we announced an agreement for MoneyLion to join Gen Digital Inc. (NASDAQ: GEN), a global leader in digital identity protection and cybersecurity with iconic brands like LifeLock, Norton, and Avast. By joining the Gen family, we will bring the MoneyLion, Engine, and Malka businesses to new heights by both augmenting our platform offerings with Gen's market-leading products, and distributing our leading consumer finance offerings to Gen's tens of millions of highly-engaged users in the US.

This will be very exciting for all of you: in joining the Gen family, we will increase the reach of our projects and access a valuable, financially-savvy user base. We will tap into Gen's product development DNA to further develop our excellence in data while increasing the scale and innovation of our technology and product technology stack. And with an expanding family of consumer brands and product suite, we will access new and exciting creative and content opportunities.

For over 11 years, we've been steadfast in our mission: empowering everyone to make their best financial decisions. Through your dedication, resilience, and innovation, we've built a consumer finance platform that helps millions of hardworking Americans navigate their financial lives with confidence and clarity.

Now, with Gen, we're taking a massive step forward. Gen's industry-leading products, backed by cutting-edge technology and exceptional teams, have earned Gen its market-leading position in digital identity protection and cybersecurity. With MoneyLion, Gen will expand into consumer finance, creating an unprecedented value proposition for both companies.

Together, we'll build something truly transformative:

- Access to Scale: Gen's vast user base provides new distribution and marketing opportunities for the MoneyLion consumer and enterprise platform, allowing us to tap into a broader audience across the full credit and financial spectrum.
- Deeper Consumer Value: By integrating Gen's digital identity protection with our financial solutions, we'll offer an unparalleled one-stop destination for managing finances, safeguarding data, and protecting identities. This is a continuation of our efforts to deliver world-class enterprise products (like MoneyLion Checkout) to enhance the financial ecosystem.

- Expanding Beyond Finance: Joining Gen positions MoneyLion in both digital finance and cyber safety, broadening our addressable market to over $50B and unlocking new paths for long-term success.
 - Global Leverage: The combined strength of Gen and MoneyLion's teams positions us to deliver world-class solutions to people around the world at an accelerated rate.
 - Shared Purpose: Gen's purpose of "Powering Digital Freedom" aligns seamlessly with our values, making this a natural fit.

MoneyLion's success has always been fueled by the passion, ingenuity, and dedication of our global team. I want to take a moment to recognize each of you for getting us to today's milestone. You've built something extraordinary, and now, as part of the Gen family, your work will impact even more lives. I'm confident this step forward will allow us to dream bigger, execute with greater resources, and remain true to the values that make MoneyLion special.

I will be holding a Global All Hands later this morning at 9:30AM EST to share more detail on this exciting moment for MoneyLion - I look forward to seeing you all there.

Thank you for believing in our mission and for your contributions to this journey. Together with Gen, we'll reshape financial empowerment for millions worldwide.

Here's to what's next—together.

With gratitude,

Dee
